BAND STORY

Nine Lies are an Indie Rock Band from Belfast in Northern Ireland. Nine Lies have had incredible success since their inception, realizing milestones that most unsigned bands can only dream of. Their determination and drive set them apart from the crowd, and this has been borne out in their achievements:

- 143,000 downloads of the single "Slippin Away"
 - The Song "Blind" licensed to Warner TV
 - The Song "Behind It All" licensed as the theme tune to TV programme 'Our Prisoner' in the USA.
 - The Song "We R1" licensed to Techno Sweat
 - The Licensing of several tracks to PC Games Development and Publishing for "Trucker 2"
 - The song "Slippin Away" selected by ASCAP for excellence in song writing award at Music Expo in L.A.
 - Legendary Producer Stuart Epps working with Nine Lies on the "Someone" EP
 - Nine Lies were invited to play at Times Square, NYC for St Patricks Day 2011
 - Being the Headline Act on the Unsigned Stage at Lark in the Park 2011
 - Being invited back to play FMI Music Festival, Brazil 2011
- Interesting facts about Nine Lies:
- Nine Lies Bassist John Rossi was originally in a little known band called Snow Patrol.
 - Lead Singer Stevie Mann is the second Cousin of Singer/Song Writer Damien Rice.
 - Nine Lies Recorded the B Side to 'Someone' with Legendary Producer Stuart Epps (Oasis/Robbie Williams/Elton John), but in an odd move produced the A side themselves.
- Nine Lies Stats:
