Biog

The After Dark Crew began playing together in 2001 as the home-brewed entertainment for ADC, Inc.'s Annual User Conference. It turned out to be a lot of fun so they kept practicing and adding new arrangements, gradually adding outside gigs. Returning fans, regular gigs and a couple of big stage performances pretty well cover their lofty goals. They aren't lean with hunger for fame and wealth. They don't have thick skins from one record label rejection after another. And they aren't salivating with impatience for the hour they can quit their day jobs. And while the fever to perform may have the After Dark Crew ready to jump onstage, any stage, at a moment's notice, in the end it's all about having fun.

We cover songs originally by: the Allman Brothers, the Doors, Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix, Pink Floyd, Stevie Ray Vaughan, the Rolling Stones, ZZ Top, with party standards such as: Mustang Sally, Johnny B Goode, Taking Care Of Business, Green Onions and a big boat-load of blues tunes with a few originals.

The After Dark Crew are available to perform for your patrons or corporate/private party, we guarantee to get 'em up and dancin'. But beware; this is not wedding reception material, it's the blues - generally on a theme of 'my baby left me...'
