My "Studio Setup"

Closet Studios

I wouldn't really call it a "studio" per se, but it is what I use to record, mix and burn the songs that are posted here. Closet Studios was a spare bedroom. Now, the room is where all of my music equipment sits along with couches, all sorts of wall posters and an entertainment center which holds hundreds of LP's which comprised my music collection (before CD's). The PC's, mixing console, amps, etc. are all located in what used to be the closet -- thus the name "Closet Studios".
