BAND STORY

Darcy reveals a unique and fascinating persona of a woman who is both innocent, yet full of sexuality. Desired by men and admired by women, she is a sought-after rising star who portrays a new era of talent and a perfect combination of yesteryears legends and tomorrow's visions.

Where Norma Jeane's story ended, Darcy's story begins and flourishes. Darcy, (former Miss Nashville, TN) began her journey on the same path that draws many people in from all over the world. The yellow brick road to Nashville's country music Mecca drew the likes of Elvis, Dolly Parton and many more voices we still cherish. It wasn't long before this beautiful blonde bombshell was turning heads as well. Darcy was opening for hit bands, winning prestigious contests known by musicians and was in the process of signing a deal. This young, motivated beauty formed her own band, worked her way to the top and caught the attention of several major record labels.

does something that you don't expect. Just as Darcy's dreams were about to come true, Nashville was turned upside down by a series of tornadoes, taking both the recording studio and Darcy's dreams with it. Unwilling to settle for anything less, this ambitious dynamo reached deep inside her Irish-Italian, and German roots and realized this was a sign for her to reach for bigger stars. With her innate ability to be a full fledged entertainer, Darcy has been discovered to be an insightful actor, singer, creator and producer in a city where dreams really do come true (for those who dare) on the silver screen of Hollywood.

The tides steered Darcy in a new direction, as if it were a plan from above. She moved to Hollywood, CA and immediately won roles beating out well known actors. When interviewing Darcy her image was definitely one that couldn't be overlooked. She may be familiar to you for gracing the National Seagram's calendar, or the Bench warmer Trading cards (also featuring other memorable faces such as; Pamela Anderson, Nikki Zeiring, and Gina Lee Nolan), or even as the brunette beauty on the new Internationally distributed AC/DC Tribute album cover titled, "We Salute You".

Just some of Darcy's accomplishments were a supporting role alongside of Will Ferrell in the comedic blockbuster "ANCHORMAN", "CONFESSIONS OF A DANGEROUS MIND", "TOMCATS", "SHOWTIME" and television shows such as "MY NAME IS EARL", "PASSIONS" and "LAS VEGAS".

When asked about her role in "ANCHORMAN" she just smiles and says, I had the time of my life and Will Ferrell and Adam McKay (Director of "ANCHORMAN") were so wonderful to work with.

Darcy has now formed an entertainment production company and is in the process of producing and developing a television sitcom, reality show, and feature film which has already generated a buzz with some major networks. If it isn't clear yet, Darcy is here to stay.

You can't help but be mesmerized by the sight of Darcy Donovan, but even more so, the essence of this young dynamo swims in your thoughts and steals your heart. If she's not in front of the camera or on stage belting out a song, she's right there by your side making you laugh and making you feel right at home with her generous Southern hospitality.
