BAND STORY

"We're still in the beginning phases of things. We don't have a full time drummer yet, and none of our recordings have drums. We're mainly writing acoustic songs at this point, but hope to delve further into our writing after we find a drummer. Our recording equipment is not the best as you'll be able to hear. Things are developing better and better every day, so hopefully we'll have better recordings as well as more music up soon. "
