BAND STORY

Ziplok is a North American music producer, rapper, and ASCAP artist that was born in Nashua, New Hampshire in 1978. Throughout the 1980s was inspired by the music being heard growing up on the radio as well as in church. At home grew up with cassette recorders, LPs and CDs.

From 1994-2000 Ziplok spent most of the time installing some of the top notch car stereo systems you could install at the time and mastering the art of sound and sound reproduction and in 2001 attended Installer Institute in Holly Hill Florida and is a certified professional installer. From 2001-2004 Ziplok recorded hundreds of rappers in Pinellas County Florida at Ziplok Studio and produced 1 unreleased Ziplok album. In 2005 Ziplok moved back to New Hampshire and started Ziplok Studio all over and started making the album Internet Fire.

In May 06 Ziplok gets online and starts an account on garageband.com. Also that year finished recording Internet Fire (released in 07) Ziplok Marketing and Promotion begins in 2008 and the rest is history. Look out for the new Ziplok LP titled O.C.D. with 14 beats by Matt Carrier. In 2010 Ziplok is working with MC L on his new project titled 7 Days A Week. Ziplok has produced tracks for the artists Rahiem, Rampage, Poppa Sim, , Ru Spits, Ali Shine and MC L. For collaborations and booking email Ziplok at iziplok@gmail.com
