BAND STORY

Formed in early 2000 * the Main$stream quickly grew into a beautiful monster capable of mass destruction through mere sing song and quick glances. Fast forward to 2008, 1 album, 5 ep's, and countless demos later and you have a small idea of the beast that is F.T.M. With a catalog like that you'd think they'd be tired...but on the contrary they've merely just begun... The de-programming has started to really take effect, help F.T.M. continue the spread of mind awakening devastation through sonic audio frequencies... If you have any reservations towards the band then simply seeing them live once will erase ANY doubt... A new album is currently in the works for a late '08 release.
